

Words of Faith

*Having dissolved every form of life, I made the world motionless.
Alone in darkness, I am blissful in the pure calmness of eternity.
Emerging now from emptiness to re-create the world, the universe quickly becomes My body.*

*Showing all that exists on Earth and above, I reveal Myself in infinite diversity.
Call Me the Almighty for I am unborn, undying, all-pervading and limitless.*

*I have no heavenly or fixed abode, since I pervade the entire universe.
Nature is an uncanny part of Me through which I fashion all forms of life.
All beings emanate from Me and are driven to perform actions for their survival.*

Multiplying and becoming knowledgeable by their own efforts, humans become creators in My creation. Driven by selfish desires, many become untruthful, hence they drift away from Me.

*Behold, I fashion humans with a body to perform actions, a soul to sustain them,
and a personality-self comprised of thoughts, feelings and consciousness.
Know the soul to be a spark of My inner divinity that is not sinful and cannot be destroyed.*

Like the cyclical nature of the universe, the soul takes on a new human body in a cycle of birth, death and rebirth. Behold, your present personality-self was fashioned by the effects of your actions in your previous life.

*Performing acts of goodness enables your soul to merge with Me, hence liberating you from the sorrows of sickness, disease, suffering and death.
Life is an experience of both joy and sorrow in which all that are born must die, since time leads to the path of decay.*

*Confused are those who are pretentious, untruthful and lost in greed.
Affable and peaceful are those who are contented, truthful and compassionate.*

*No one is entirely perfect, hence renouncing your duty or all earthly possessions to solely worship or meditate on Me will not make you a perfected saint.
Performing selfless actions and following what your conscience tells you is right and meaningful brings inner peace to one who strives for the betterment of all.*

Retain a sense of balance, avoid extremes and elevate yourself by your own efforts. Know that the arrogant worshippers of Me who ill-treat others and are difficult to reason with are fanatics. Performing acts of goodness is better than having religious beliefs that are too rigid and lack sense and significance. Your body is a tool to perform acts of benevolence, therefore be selective of the types of foods you consume to keep it healthy.

Considering the fragility of life and the impermanence of all things, reflect on the happy memories of being with loved ones to alleviate your sorrows in times of grief.

To sustain the harmony and order of things, those selected to govern should be levelheaded in creating laws that are fair and purposeful to prevent chaos.

Know that at the end of another cycle of creation and destruction, I will again disrupt the cosmic order of things and fill the universe with darkness. Once more, emerging from a state of almost non-existence, I will again bring new beings to life through My magical mystery of nature. ...J.R.S.
